ABBY FORKNALL

(Margot)

Abby graduated from Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts with a BA (Hons) in acting.

Her most notable performance was in 'A View from the Bridge' at the DUKE OF YORK THEATRE in London's West End. Her other roles include Hermia in Shakespeare's 'A Midsummer Nights Dream' with the THE CHANGELING THEATRE COMPANY, Florinda in 'The Rover' at EDINBURGH FESTIVAL, in 'Elegies for raging punks and Queens' at THE SHAW THEATRE, 'The Soup Dragon' (the Clangers) with the BIRMINGHAM STAGE COMPANY and her most recent successful theatre performance in 2014 was as Millie in the thriller play 'Murderer' by Anthony Shaffer at THE GATEHOUSE THEATRE in London.

She has also presented the 'Kellkoo gadget shows' and appeared in many adverts for BBC radio 5 live, Unilever Yogurts and THE PICTUREHOUSE CINEMAS.

Abby is part of the touring company TINY WALLOPS playing 'Little Miss Fanny'. She appeared in WILTONS MUSIC HALLS resident theatre troupe for over three years and has since been picked up by JACKSONS LANE and THE ARCOLA.

After spending her summer this year performing with the PETERSHAM PLAYHOUSE in 'Shotgun Carousel' and 'A Curious Invitation' as a part of their Festival Stage Shows she is now delighted to be in the South of France playing 'Margot' in 'Dial M for Murder' for SET Theatre.
